Neighbors who knew of her suffering reported the child to the Red Cross and the Red Cross with the consent of her father volunteered to get her the best medical treatment and operation to be had, in the hope of restoring her to health. The surgical experts held out hope of a successful operation, while at the same time admitting it might be unsuccessful. Through the kindness of Dr. S. C. Delap, of Kansas City, Mo., we are able to give a more complete account of the life of the late Dr. W. L. Delap, a native of this county, whose death we recorded last week.

Dr. W. L. Delap, known in boyhood as Leonard Delap, died at midnight Jan. 5, 1921, at Gloucester City, New Jersey, where he had enjoyed a lucrative practice in medicine for a period of 34 years. He was born April 4, 1849, near Heidlersburg, Pa., and was therefore in his 72nd year. He attended the Select School of his brother, S. C. Delap, in New Oxford in 1872, and the Millersville State Normal School the two following years; also spending nearly a year in the Kansas State Normal School at Emporia, Kansas, and graduating the following year at the Cumberland Valley State Normal School at Shippensburg, Pa. Previously he had taught several years in the public schools of Adams and York counties. After graduation he had taught several years had been principal of the public schools at Bristol, Pa. While there he attended the Hahnemann Medical College, Philadelphia, graduating in the class of 1886. He soon located at Gloucester City, New Jersey, where he became highly successful in the practice of his profession. Very soon after locating there he was appointed a medical examiner for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. In later years the work of the Insurance Company in that region, including Camden, absorbed most of his time.

Dr. Delap was married in 1875 to Miss Amy Myers, daughter of Adam S. Myers, of Hampton, Pa., to whom was born his only child, a son, Wilbur Delap, who is in the railway mail service of the Pa. R. R. between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. His wife died in 1889 and in 1892 he was married to Miss Sallie Black, of Cleveland, O. who died in 1906 and he was again married the second year following to Miss Irene K. Kistler, of Stroudsburg, Pa., who survives him.

He is also survived by his elder brother, Dr. S. C. Delap, of Kansas City, Mo.; Daniel P. Delap, of Bendersville, Pa.; his sister, Mrs. Jacob Fidler, of Table Rock, Pa.; his brother, H. Amos Delap, of Gettysburg, Pa. A sister died in infancy and a brother, John Lyson Delap, died while teaching in Cumberland county in 1874.

Dr. W. L. Delap was a man of most amiable disposition and made and held friends wherever he was known. His noted kindness to his patients made him revered by them for the rest of their lives. No examiner of the Metropolitan Insurance Co. in the State of New Jersey was held in higher respect and more tender regard.—Contributed.

SEED POTATOES FROM MICH.

Dr. R. L. Nixon, of State College, to Address Farmers on Potato Growing.

A meeting of farmers has been scheduled for the Adams County Farm Bureau for one o'clock Thursday afternoon, Feb. 17, at Knouse's Store at Brysonia. Dr. Nixon, who has done more than any other man in the State for the development of the potato industry, will be the speaker. At the State Farm Products Show held recently in Harrisburg, Dr. Nixon made the sweeping statement that the potato growers of Pennsylvania are only fifty per cent efficient. The reason for this is answered by one word "disease," says Dr. Nixon.

Not to be outdone by the farmers in other counties, the Adams county growers are also getting together in ordering disease free potato seed from Michigan. This order is being made up by the Farm Bureau and any growers wanting seed can place their order prior to the 17th. Dr. Nixon is very much in demand throughout the State and persons interested in disease control cannot well afford to miss hearing him. He will address the farmers again the afternoon of Feb. 18th in the Court House at the annual meeting of the Adams County Farm Bureau.

The other speakers of the annual meeting will be Dr. H. H. Haver, of State College, on "Better Live Stock" and E. K. Hibshman, of State College, on Agricultural Extension Work. The evening speakers at the banquet to be held at the Eagle Hotel will be Dr. C. J. Jordan, Chairman of the Agricultural Committee in the State Legislature, and Mr. Hibshman. As previously announced all farmers of the county are eligible to attend the banquet and can procure tickets from the Farm Bureau office.

Court Notes.

At a session of the court on last Saturday presided over by President Judge D. P. McPherson and Associate Judges W. Howard Dicks and E. P. Miller, the following business was transacted:

The charges against Mark Reard, Ira Reard and Samuel Shockey, of near Pen-Mar, were not prossed. The charges were carrying concealed deadly weapons. The defendants had previously been charged with disturbing the religious worship of the Holy Rollers, in which cases sentence had been suspended.

Nelson Miller, the 15-year-old New Oxford boy, plead guilty to larceny of bananas from store of Felix Sanders and was paroled, being placed under the supervision of his father, Fius J. Miller, and the costs were paid. Leo Martin, another New Oxford boy, was committed to St. Mary's Industrial School on a similar charge, and costs in case were paid.

The court heard the application of Frank X. Clunk and Augustus Clunk for a guardian for Vincent Clunk who had been committed to the Insane Department of the County Home on the certificate of two physicians. The testimony of Dr. Henry Stewart, Dr. A. C. Wentz, of Hanover, and Dr. A. C. Rice, of McSherrystown, in support of position of mental defectiveness of party and the opposite view was contended for in testimony of Dr. J. P. Dalber and Dr. J. C. Felty. As the testimony did not show that Vincent Clunk was incapable of attending to business, the Court at the conclusion of the hearing dismissed the proceedings.

On Thursday of this week Vincent Clunk presented a habeas corpus petition to the Court and the situation was again threshed out with the Court discharging Clunk from the custody of the Directors of the Poor.

ARENDTSVILLE.

There are still some persons that fail to address their parcel post packages correctly. The sender should address the package: From, giving the sender's name and post office address on the upper left hand corner of the package. To the addressee, their name, street number and post office address on the lower right hand corner of the package, and address it with pen and ink. Lead pencil marks rub off in transit then the package goes lost and the package should be wrapped in heavy wrapping paper and well tied with strong twine.

Owing to the high cost of building material and labor there are no new houses going up in our town and immediate vicinity this summer except that a large addition will be built to the new school house in this place. The mild weather during the last ten days has saved many tons of high priced coal and wood.

Seizure of Liquor Cases.

The hearing of the cases growing out of the seizure of 19 cases of liquor in alley rear of Chambersburg street by State Police and Chief of Police Milton V. Fugitt, on night of Jan. 21, was not concluded on last Thursday. The United States Commissioner at Lancaster, concluded that he had no right to hear and determine the matter and made an order that John Shultz, J. Herman Bream, Raymond Miller and Meader Williams, of Gettysburg, and James Cain, of Philadelphia, appear before Robert E. Wible, U. S. Commissioner, in Gettysburg, on Thursday, Feb. 24, and matter will not reach a conclusion until that time. The truck of Herman Bream has been released and returned to him.

Income Tax Facts You Should Know.

Births, deaths, and marriages during the year 1920 affect materially income tax returns for that year.

Millions of babies were added to family circles, each of whom brings an exemption of $200 in the parents' income tax returns.

Widows and widowers who lost their husbands or wives during the year are especially affected. They are single for the purposes of the income tax law and are granted only an exemption of $1,000, unless the head of a family.

Persons who were divorced or separated by mutual agreement during the year also must consider themselves as single persons.

The status of the taxpayer on December 31, 1920, determines the amount of the exemptions. If on that day the taxpayer was married and living with wife or husband, claim may be made for $2,000 exemption. If single, or married and not living with wife or husband on December 31, the exemption is only $1,000.

Persons who reached majority during the year and whose earnings for that period amounted to $1,000 or more, or $2,000 or more, according to their marital status, must file a return and pay a tax on their net income in excess of those amounts.

To avoid penalty, the return must be in the hands of the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives, or has his principal place of business, on or before midnight of March 15, 1921.

Adams County Corn Crop.

The Agricultural Department announces the corn crop of the State for 1920 as over sixty-five million bushels. The following is given as the yield in Adams county: 45,750 acres planted with a yield to acre of 35.6, and total production of 2,066,200 bushels, worth at an average price $1 per bushel or a total value of $2,066,200.

Father Needs Children's Support.

Nine children of William Geisler, aged 82 years, feeble and in ill health, have been arrested on warrants charging them with non-maintenance of their aged parent, issued from the office of Alderman Owen, York. All of them have furnished bond for their appearance at a hearing to be held next Monday morning. Those arrested are: George Geisler, Abbottstown; Isaac and Aaron Geisler, New Oxford; William and John Geisler, York; Mrs. Emma Wolford, of Gettysburg; R. D. to Mrs. Lucinda Lehr, Mrs. Minnie Strine and Mrs. Ellen Mundis, of York. The aged man's condition is such that he requires constant attention. At present he is with a son, John Geisler, one of the defendants, whose wife brought the suit. Some of Mr. Geisler's children have contributed to his support, but others have not, thus making it necessary to bring the suit against them all. It is said that fifty cents a week from each is all that is required to care for the infirm man.

Reprieve to Collins and Reinecker.

Gov. Sproul granted a reprieve of the sentence of execution of Clarence R. Collins and Charles C. Reinecker, convicted of the murder of George Bushman, until Feb. 28th, to permit their cases to be considered by the Board of Pardons during the month of February.

Farmers Make Poor Show.

What is the matter with the Adams county farmers? A bulletin has just been issued of the winners of prizes at the recent Agricultural and Horticultural Exhibitions held at Harrisburg under direction of the Department of Agriculture of the State. Prizes were offered for potatoes, butter, cheese, small grains, wheat, rye, oats, soybeans, buckwheat, eggs, all varieties of corn grown by farmers and boys and girls, prizes for vegetables, celery, lettuce, onions, carrots, turnips, beets, wool, nuts and honey, and there was not a single prize or award to an Adams county farmer, and likely for the very best reason that there was no exhibit in these classes from the county.

Only in the fruit exhibits were a few prizes won by Adams county orchard men, and it is likely there was aggressive organization promoting exhibitions from the county.

H. M. Keller & Sons were given first prize of $5 for the best barrel of Stayman and York apples, and Elevator Orchard Company of Jack's Mountain a second prize of $3 for best barrel of York apples.

L. L. Deardorff won $15 prize for best three barrels of Rome, Stark, and Stayman, and H.M. Keller & Son second prize of $3 for three barrels of Rome, Stayman and York.

H. M. Keller & Son won first prize of $25 for best five barrels of Stayman and $1 for best plate of 5 apples, Stayman, and Elevator Orchard Co. second prize of 50 cents for plate of five apples, York.

Does Adams Co. Have a Big Tree.

The Pennsylvania Department of Forestry has begun a campaign to locate the big trees of Pennsylvania. It is collecting information on the largest specimen of each kind of the 100 different species of forest trees that grow in the State.

Bedford county boasts of the largest Swamp Oak yet found in Pennsylvania. That tree is thirty-two feet in circumference at the base. Dauphin county claims the largest Sycamore, which is more than twenty-five feet in circumference at the base. It is declared that the State's largest Sugar Maple stands at Eaglesmere, Sullivan county.

Prof. Illick, chief of the office of Research, Harrisburg, desires the following measurements of big trees: Circumference at base; circumference at breast-height; total height of tree, and the total spread of branches. If Adams county has a champion tree it should also have the credit.

New Novel by Elsie Singmaster

Ellen Lewis is the title of the new novel by Elsie Singmaster Lewars, just published by Houghton Mifflin Company, Boston, price $2.00. The story is largely located in Lancaster county and presents a most picturesque setting of a Seventh Day Baptist community. The old patriarch is strongly drawn with his forbidding religion and its failure and when he refrains from lighting the faggots to destroy the failure, the reader is apt to commit mental arson in his place. Mrs. Sassaman's origin could have stood more illustrations than the few exhibitions, among others, "I sink it will give rain." These are, however, only side lights to the romance holding the interest of the readers from cover to cover.

He had been ordered to Honolulu, after signing a statement that he was responsible for the condition of his wife, who was found beaten in their home several weeks ago. Lt. Rupp attended Gettysburg College several years as a member of the class of 1909 and at the same time was a member of the firm here of Rupp & Enterline. He was a native of York, a son of Harry D. Fanny Mistake.

The York Springs Lutheran charge composed of the York Springs Church, Chestnut Grove Church and Lower Bermudian Church have been without a pastor since the removal of Rev. Gladfelter to Abbottstown. Without any intention to be pulling in separate ways but through some misunderstanding, the York Springs Church elected Rev. Howard Hilner, and Chestnut Grove and Lower Bermudian elected Rev. F. H. Dauberspeck, and after the thing was done found out they had elected not the same minister. It looks like it may be up to one of the elected to refuse a half charge in order that the other can get a whole charge.

SON OF LINCOLN MODEST AS FATHER

The Lincoln modesty is a trait of the son as it was of the father. Robert Lincoln, son of Abraham Lincoln, has always made it a point to dodge publicity. This picture of him was taken recently at Chicago when he was caught unaware. "My father was a great man—I am not," he always says when requested to pose. But personal friends say it is only the same modesty that so characterized the great American.

Free Seeds for Distribution.

Congressman E. S. Brooks has ready for distribution, he announces, a supply of vegetable seeds put out by the United States Department of Agriculture. Readers of this newspaper will be able to get seed by calling at, or addressing the Congressional office in York. Last spring Congressman Brooks undertook to supply seed to the pupils of every school in York and Adams counties. He states that he received many favorable reports of the success of this method of bringing the seed into as many families of his district as possible. Unfortunately a reduced allotment will not permit him to continue the same method. The York Congressman's allotment this year includes popular garden varieties, but he states that he will not be able to furnish any other than the assortment included in the packets allotted to him. He has also, for free distribution, bulletins giving instructions for successful gardening. Mr. Brooks will be able to supply a very limited number of requests for trial plantings of alfalfa, soybeans, or Sudan grass. Only one variety may be supplied to an applicant.

PULLS TWICE AS MUCH WITH THIS WAGON

Using the law of leverage as the principle upon which he has worked out the problem of heavy hauls, T. H. Brigg, well known English inventor, claims he has in the model shown here, a vehicle which will revolutionize rural transportation. A horse pulling on levers on the first wagon, pulls the second wagon, so geared that it in turn pushes on the first wagon, increasing the pulling power of a horse one-half again. Of course a motor tractor or automobile can be used instead of the horse.

COUGHED FOR HOURS AT NIGHT, COULD NOT SLEEP, HAD SEVERE HEADACHES, WAS ALWAYS DIZZY

Took Earle's Hypo-Cod, Now Feels Better Than He has for a Year.

HAS MORE AMBITION—
ENJOYS LIFE AGAIN.

"I suffered from the influenza back in February 1919 which left me with severe headache, weak limbs, and I would cough for hours at night—couldn't sleep until I was completely played out from coughing. My eyes were affected and I was dizzy all the time.

"I worked nearly all the time however, but was not fit to be around my fellow workers. After seeing Earle's Hypo-Cod advertised in the Philadelphia papers I bought a bottle and gave it a trial. I feel much better now, have more ambition, enjoy life more than I have in the past year. I can sleep better and get up of a morning feeling refreshed and ready for my day's work. Hypo-Cod helped me wonderfully and made me feel 50% better," declared Wilson

Miller, 1541 Lilgham St., Allentown, Pa.

No man can do his work well if half sick. No man can ward off disease if his system is weakened and run-down. Therefore every man should watch his health most carefully. Earle's Hypo-Cod is a more modern and powerful combination of well known medicinal elements. (See formula on bottle). It does its work a little quicker. It agrees with a weak stomach better and is easier to take. It is not a cure. It is a tonic. Build yourself up with it just at this season of the year and feel better, work better and keep the whole family feeling that way.

Drop in at the drug store tonight on your way home and get a couple bottles of the genuine Earle's Hypo-Cod in the famous orange colored carton. You'll be delighted with the Quick results we are sure.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by all good druggists and the leading druggists in all nearby towns.

FARMERS OF NORTHWEST FIND RACING DOGS HELPFUL IN WORK

No longer does the big city dog show rule supreme as the spot where the true lovers of dogs may admire the blooded canines. Out in the west and the northwest a new winter sport is each year gaining in interest, dog races which attract farmers, prospectors, town folks and Indians, Ashton, Idaho, last town on the way west to Yellowstone Park and the center of a wide and prosperous wheat, oat and potato district, is an example of the extent to which this sport has been developed. They are now making ready there for the annual races when men and boys of the district, free from crop duties, will enter and race their dog teams in the big classic. The upper picture shows a five-dog team of strong limbed animals entered by two Ashton boys. The lower sized team shows how the animals are used in farm work — in this picture the dogs, working double, hauling baled hay. The head is of an ideal type developed for sled duty in the northwest.
